It has a nice really soft cover. Each page has places to write in a bible verse, what you're thankful for, and for your prayers. I didn't think each page would be the same that way. Also, I thought the pages would have flowers or other pretty things to color. Instead each page has designs to color in. The page opposite to the page to write in and color has a bible verse. But are the pages supposed to be black, where I can hardly read the bible verse unless I hold it close to my face? Or is this a mistake in my book? I hope another reviewer can answer this question. I do like the book and will keep it, but it's just not what I pictured (especially those black pages).0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. My Light Bulb MomentBy V. HumphriesInspired To Grace Prayer Journal: Colouring Edition: 6-Month (Inspirational Colouring Books for Grown-Ups) -- I purchased my copy of the 'Prayer Journal Coloring Edition' right before Christmas. Upon receiving it, I put it to the side and didn't open it until the other day, when I immmediatly noticed, like the other customers, that the pages with the Bible verses were black. On the other hand the pages for journaling were very nice. I really like that the background on each journal page is designed differently, Even the spaces for writing designated for your scripture verse, gratitude, and prayers differed from page to page. I like the size of the pages, especially since I'm planning to remove the pages and add them to a three ring binder which will also include pages I created for my Bible study, Now, I have to admit I had been looking for information on why the Bible verses were printed on such dark paper. Until I saw the other reviews, I thought I'd missed something. I'm not sure how its going to work but my idea is to see if I can find and use neon/glitter gel pens or maybe chalk markers and color the dark pages, bringing out the designs and scripture verses on those pages. Overall, very satisfied with this edition of 'Inspired to Grace Prayer Journal Coloring Edition.' Once I get the pens/markers in hand and actually use them, I'll let you know how it turned out1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not what I expected it to be very disappointedBy CustomerNot at all what I expected it to be they are like a large coloring book with verses on the left side of each page or pages are so dark you can barely read the verses and when I read the description I was under the impression it was going to be like a small journal You could take along with you to church to write notes but is way bigger than I expected it to be I will probably be sending this back
